

in brief

Arriva entered the Czech Republic transport market in 2006.

In 2007 the group strengthened its position with the acquisition of a further two bus companies.

History

Arriva entered the Czech Republic transport market in 2006, when it acquired bus operator Transcentrum Bus s.r.o, a leading company operating bus services to the north of Prague.

In 2007 Arriva strengthened its position in the Czech Republic bus market with the acquisitions of Bosak Bus s.r.o and Osnado spol s.r.o.

Background

In the Czech Republic bus market, responsibility for the procurement of public road transport has been devolved to regional authorities, with funding centrally controlled.

The former Czechoslovakian Railways split into two national networks in 1993. Responsibility for the procurement of local and regional rail services has been delegated to regional authorities.

Bus

Bosak Bus s.r.o

Based in Dobříš south west of Prague, Bosak Bus s.r.o operates inter-urban and urban bus services in and around its base.

It also operates services on the main bus route between Píbram and Prague and has contracts with the City of Prague and the Středočeský region.

Bosak Bus s.r.o operates contracted services to local authorities and some private transport service contracts.

August 2008

Osnado spol s.r.o

Osnado, provides urban, suburban and long-distance services in the north east of Prague.

Based in Svoboda nad Upou it operates 106 buses.

Trancentrum Bus s.r.o

With offices based in Mlada Boleslav, Transcentrum Bus s.r.o operates in the Stredocesky region with additional services in the regions of Liberecky and Kralovehradecky.

Transcentrum Bus s.r.o provides commercial services, as well as contracted services to local authorities, contracted private services and a travel agency.

It also has offices in central Prague.

Arriva in the Czech Republic

Arriva's combined businesses in the Czech Republic operate 280 buses and have 425 employees.

Related websites (in Czech):

www.bosaksro.cz

www.osnado.cz

www.transcentrumbus.com

Committed to delivering a better service

Naším závazkem jsou lepší služby